NELSON DRADER 1932

One of the best known residents of the Inverary district passed away at his home, Inverary, on Friday, in the person of Nelson Drader. He was in his eighty-fifth year. The funeral is being held from his late residence, Inverary, to Verona cemetery on Sunday afternoon at one o'clock. 1932

CARMEN O. DRADER

Carmen Orville Drader, 82, a former reeve of Storrington Township and warden of Frontenac county, was buried recently in Sandhill cemetery at Battersea. 1965

He died March 6 at Kingston's Hotel Dieu Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Mr. Drader was born at Verona in 1883, a son of the late Nelson Drader and his wife, the former Nancy Wheeler.

He was predeceased by his wife, the former Lou Edna Wolfe; a daughter, Mrs. John (Edna Lillian) Hitchcock, and three sisters, Mrs. Chet (Etta) Davy; Mrs. John (Harriet) Gerdali, and Mrs. John (Caroline) Conner.

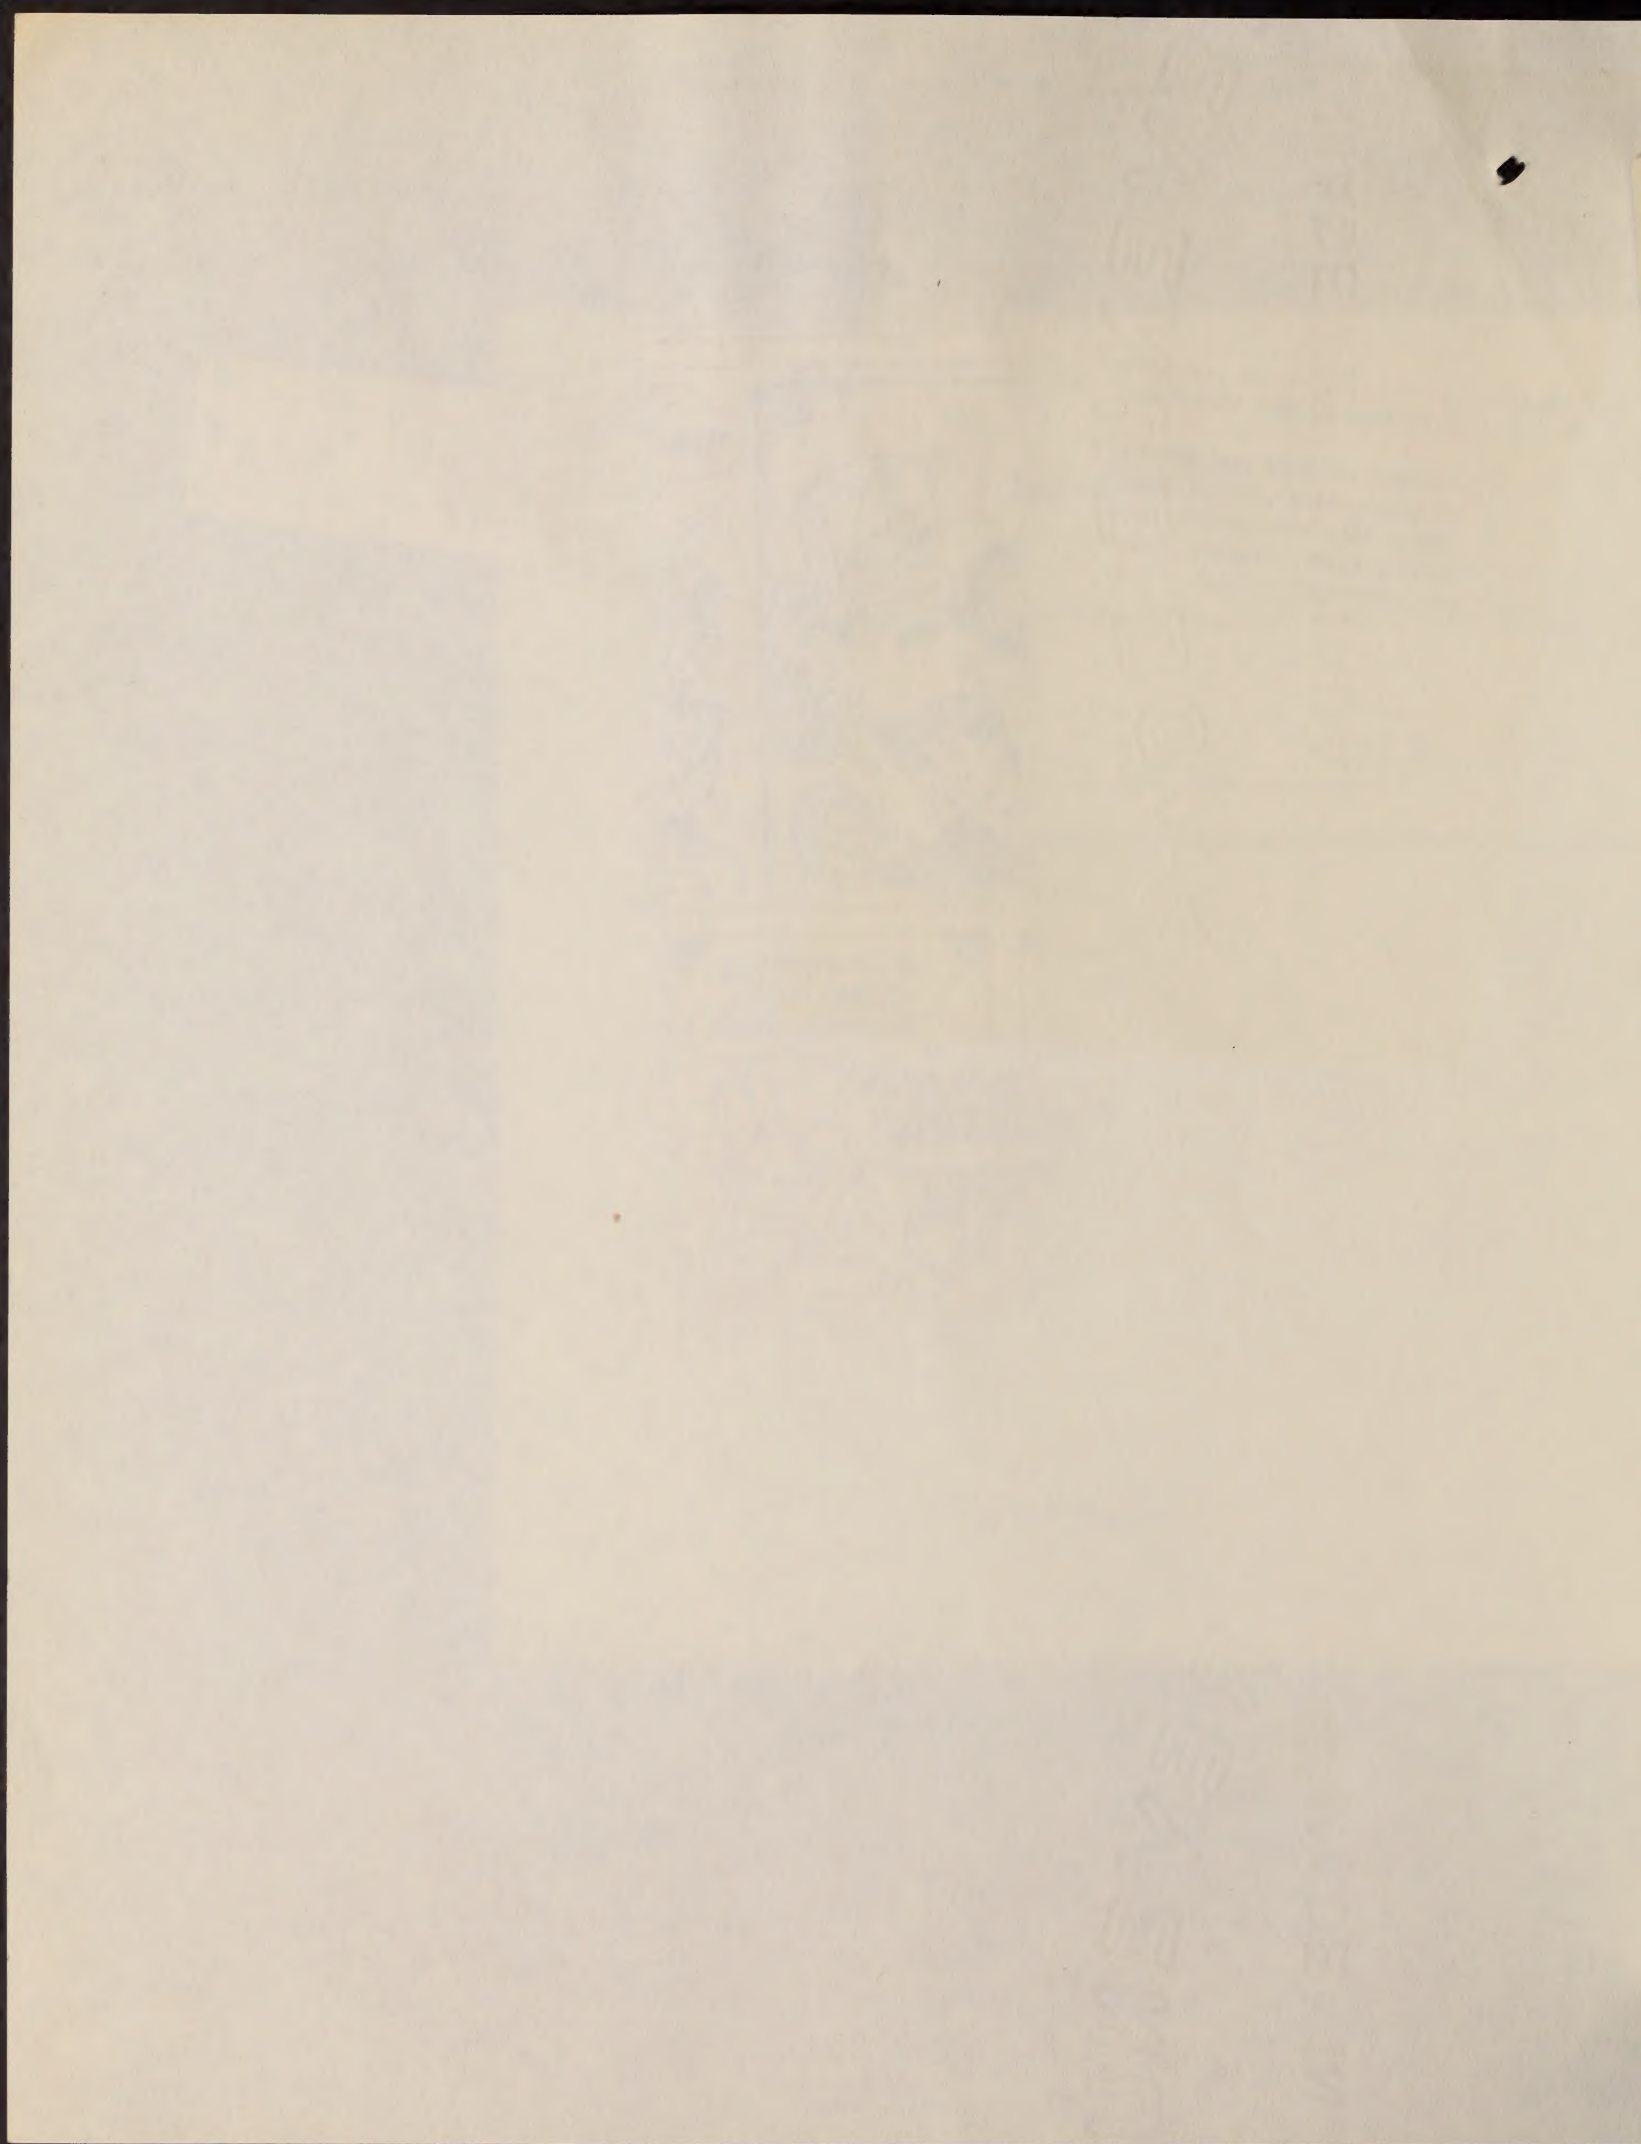

Survivors include a grandson, Raymond John Hitchcock, and several nieces and nephews.

A student minister of the Inverary United Church officiated at a service held in the James Reid funeral home chapel.

Pallbearers were Howard Arthur, George Hunter, Vincent Johnson, David Dixon, Gordon Silver and Kenneth Conner.

DEATHS

DRADER—At Inverary on Friday, Feb. 12th, 1932. Nelson Drader in his 85th year. Funeral from his late residence to Verona Cemetery on Sunday afternoon, at one o'clock. Friends and acquaintances respectfully invited to attend.
